

14 - Recognized Certifying Boards in Emergency Medicine

(Adopted 10/11)

The American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians (ACOEP) recognizes and supports the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) through the American Osteopathic board of Emergency Medicine (AOBEM) as the sole certifying authority for osteopathic emergency medicine.

The American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians also recognizes the American Board of Emergency Medicine as the certifying authority under the aegis of the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) for emergency physicians trained in allopathic training programs.
