

Disclosure to Learners
Individuals in Control of Content / Commercial Support

Activity Title: ACOEP 2024 Scientific Assembly

Activity Date & Location: 10/6/24 Houston, TX

Disclosure of Financial Relationships

In accordance with the ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, all relevant financial relationships, and the absence of relevant financial relationships, must be disclosed to learners for all individuals in control of content:

- Before learners engage with the accredited education
- In a format that can be verified at the time of accreditation

ACOFP mitigates all conflicts of interest to ensure independence, objectivity, balance, and scientific rigor in all our educational programs. The following individuals have reported relationships with ineligible companies, as defined by the ACCME. These relationships, in the context of their involvement in the CME activity, could be perceived by some as a real or apparent conflict of interest. All relevant financial relationships noted below have been mitigated to ensure that no commercial bias has been inserted into the educational content.

Disclosure of Commercial Support

In accordance with the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, commercial support from ineligible companies, as defined by the ACCME (including “in-kind” support), including the name and nature of support must also be disclosed to learners prior to engaging with accredited education.

No commercial support to disclose.

An ineligible company is any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients

The ACCME defines "relevant" financial relationships" as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.
